Phoenix Jewish Genealogy Group Mentoring Meeting

Learn how to research your family history like a pro! Join our January mentoring session led by expert Emily H. Garber to deepen your skills and possibly break through a research challenge.

Discussion topics include:

- 💡 Strategies for tackling hard-to-solve ancestry puzzles
- 💡 Locating specific types of genealogical records
- 💡 Understanding DNA test results and genetic matches

Together, we'll explore resources, share strategies, and provide the tools to explore your family's history.

Register today and bring your questions!

Emily H. Garber is an accomplished genealogy researcher, writer, and speaker. An anthropological archaeologist by training (B.A. and M.A), Emily serves as chair of the Phoenix Jewish Genealogy Group, a member of the Board of Directors of the Arizona Jewish Historical Society, and Vice President of the IAJGS.
