GENEALOGY

The Holocaust Reunion Project

Harnessing the Power of Genetic Genealogy to Help Holocaust Survivors Find Family

Join us for a special presentation with Jennifer Mendelsohn and Adina Newman, co-founders and lead genealogists of the nonprofit Holocaust Reunion Project.

Their mission is to harness the power of commercial DNA testing and combine it with expert genealogical research to help survivors and their families. Jennifer and Adina specialize in solving complex cases such as hidden children and unknown parentage.

Come learn from their remarkable success stories that will leave you truly inspired.
